ROANOKE.

THE CITY SCHOOL BOARD CONDEMNED ON ALL SIDES.

Roanoke, Va., June 19.—A year ago the School Board of this city requested an extra assessment for the purpose of securing funds to increase the force of teachers, and in compliance with the request, the City Council increased the tax levy from 15 cents to 25 cents.

Saturday night a star chamber session of the board was held, at which newspaper reporters were excluded, but to-day it leaked out that the board had not taken the contemplated step of increasing the force of teachers, but instead, raised the salaries of the seven principals of the white schools to sums ranging from $150 to $175 per month. This makes an increase of from $15 to $25 per month on the salaries of these men, while the salaries of the intermediate and primary teachers were left the same as heretofore, and range from $20 to $50 per month.

The action of the School Board is condemned on all sides, and it is estimated that the City Council may take the matter up on the grounds that the increased funds at the disposal of the School Board are not being used for the purpose intended, as represented by the board in securing the increased levy.

WILLIAM AND MARY.

THE 26TH COMMENCEMENT OF THIS OLD AND HONORED SCHOOL.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Williamsburg, Va., June 15.—Our old town is rapidly filling up with visitors, and each train adds its quota to the ever-increasing crowd. All the hotels are full, and nearly every family has its complement of guests. The 26th commencement of William and Mary began yesterday with the baccalaureate sermon by Rev. G. B. Strickland, D. D., L. L. D., of the Union Theological Seminary, Richmond. The Doctor read his text from Hebrews, 4th chapter, 12th verse. From this text a sermon of rare beauty and force was preached, which was listened to attentively by an immense crowd. It was the subject of much favorable comment on the part of the well qualified judges of pulpit oratory.

REV. M. R. WHARTON, D. D.
At night the old chapel, which has so often resounded with the voice of the greatest men of the nation, was again filled to its utmost capacity to hear the sermon before the Young Men's Christian Association of the college, by the Rev. M. R. Wharton, D. D., of Francis Baptist Church, Baltimore. This reverend gentleman spoke from the 2nd chapter of Hebrews, 1st verse. His sermon was also one of great beauty and power. This was Dr. Wharton's first appearance here, and his hearty expression of himself as being charmed with his fine delivery, eloquence and earnestness.

IN HOLIDAAY ATTIRE.
The old college is decorated very elaborately, the college colors being largely in evidence. The chapel also has on its holiday attire, and on the snow-white walls appear in relief the names of the great alumni of old William and Mary, including Jefferson, Madison, Marshall and other worthies; but no name more prominent as a devoted affection than that of the late beloved Benjamin Stoddard Jewell, whose name is enshrined in the memory of hearts of so many of the old students.

ANNUAL BANQUET.

The annual banquet of the alumni takes place at the Colonial Inn Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. Among those who will respond to toasts are Attorneys General Montague, Hon. M. E. Tamm, of Cincinnati, and Hon. Harvey L. Christie, of the St. Louis bar.

A handsome memorial tablet to the memory of President Jewell will be unveiled Wednesday at 1 p. m. The exercises will consist of a speech of presentation by Hon. B. B. Munford, of Richmond, and of acceptance by Col. Wm. Lamb, rector of the college.

NORFOLK VISITORS.
Among the large number of Norfolk people in attendance are Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Hughes, and Miss Pattie Gregory.

ACCOMAC.

A SPIRITED CONTEST OVER SITE FOR A COURTHOUSE.
Accomac C. H., Va., June 19.—The supervisors of Accomac county met at the Courthouse last week and surprised the people of the county by passing a resolution to build a new Courthouse upon the old site at once. There is rather severe criticism in many parts of the county of the board for making such haste in a matter involving the expenditure of many thousands of dollars without having first taken some steps to ascertain the wishes of the people and lay-movers as to the matter.

The proposed Courthouse is situated on the corner of the county seat, and its location is the subject of much discussion. The action of the supervisors, and raised a sufficient sum of money to pay the necessary expense incurred in an effort to secure an injunction from the courts staying all further efforts by the board in the direction of a new Courthouse until the Legislature convenes during the coming winter, at which time it is proposed to ask for an election in order to ascertain the sentiments of the voters of the county as to the building of a new Courthouse and as to its location.
